

As readers we will...

- Explore the themes of narrative poetry.
- Analyse the features of persuasive texts.
- Read texts related to the rainforest.

As authors we will...

- Create a persuasion text about deforestation.
- Create an information text about Amazonian animals.
- Write our own narrative poem.

As performers we will...

- Use hot seating and drama to gain empathy with characters.

As artists we will...

- Create carnival masks.
- Create pieces in the style of Henri Rousseau.

As athletes we will...

- Develop our skills in cricket, rounders and athletics.
- Understand the importance of respect within participation and competition.

As scientists we will...

- Finish our work on forces
- Be learning about life cycles of mammals, insects, amphibians and birds.
- Consolidate our scientific knowledge and skills covered throughout the year.

Key questions:

- What comparisons can be made between life in Brazil and life in Britain?
- Why is the rainforest so important?

Key outcomes:

- Understanding areas of cultural significance in Brazil.
- Appreciate how life can be different across the world.

Visits/Trips:

- Our residential trip to Frylands
- K'nex challenge (24.05.19)

As mathematicians we will...

- Continue to develop our calculation skills (+ - x ÷). Teach compact short and long multiplication.
- Investigate nets of 3D shapes.
- Translate and reflect polygons in different quadrants.
- Use reasoning to solve multi-step word problems.
- Further develop understanding of the relationship between fractions, decimals and %.

As musicians we will...

- Explore the theme of improvisation using instruments.

As theologians we will...

- Consider the importance of Catholicism significance in Brazil.
- Explore the significance of the Qu'ran, Ramadan and five pillars of faith to Muslims.

As geographers we will...

- Look at major differences between Rio and London.
- Understand some of the causes and effects of deforestation.
- Explore aspects of physical and human geography.

As good citizens we will...

- Continue our Relationship and Sex Education unit, looking at how bodies change through puberty.
- Understand the importance of positive relationships.

The word 'Brazil' is written in a stylized, 3D font. The letters are green and yellow, with a blue and white pattern inside the letters, resembling the Brazilian flag. The word is centered in a white oval.